Ethan,

How is everything going? I hope you got new boots. I know what its like to have swollen feet, in basic training I couldn't even tie my boots for weeks.

Are you doing a lot of physical training? I know you will get tired of physical traing every day but you will feel like a new person after basic is over.

Be brave, make friends and you will be ok. We are very proud of you and love you very much.

If there is anything you need & can't get at the PX, let us know & we will get it for you.

Not much going on here. We will make reservations today for a campground near you so we can visit you when you get a leave.

We will let you go for now, I know you are very busy and remember we love you & can't wait to see you. This month now how are Sweety? I miss you! Hope things are good We are going to watch Jillian tonight to be inducted into the National Honor Society for her high grades. But I think she's not as Smart as you! We love you! Mom & Dad
